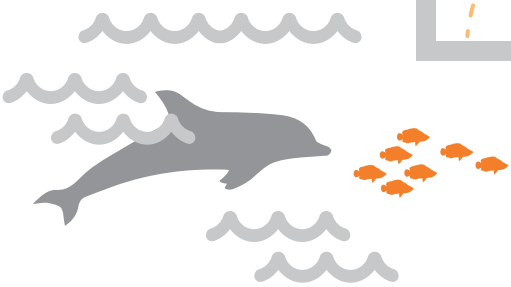
Did you know?

WORLD ANIMAL PROTECTION

No dolphin willingly performs tricks or swims with people. They suffer physically and emotionally apart from their families when captured and placed in small tanks. Visit worldanimalprotection.ca to find out more.

1

Dolphins have many, different ways to find food in the wild

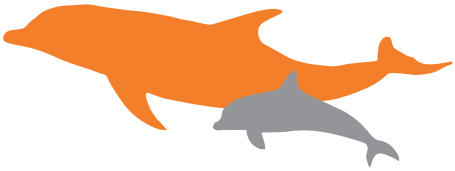


2

Dolphins have different whistles and clicks to call each other by name

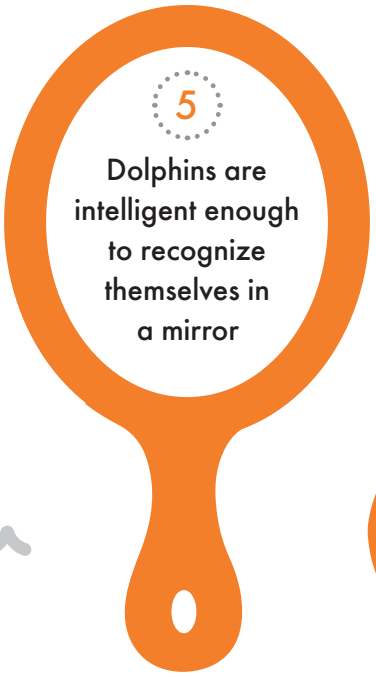
3

Mother dolphins will protect their babies with their bodies



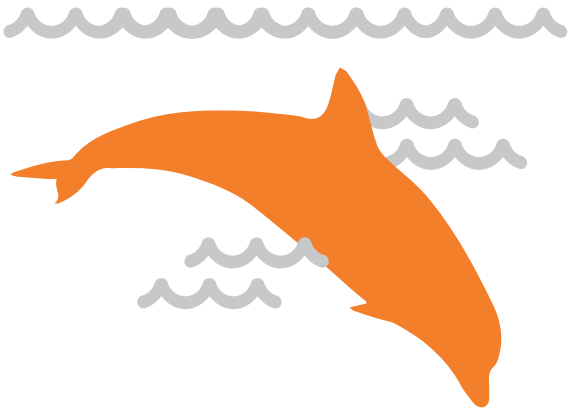
5

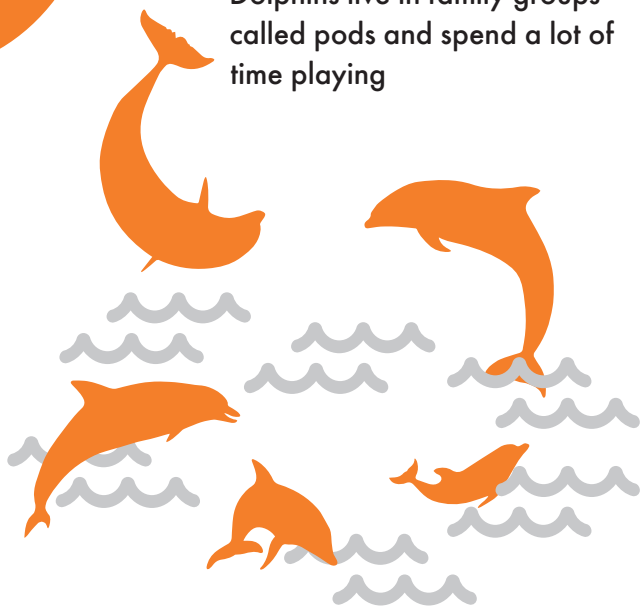
Dolphins are intelligent enough to recognize themselves in a mirror



4

Dolphins are fast swimmers, deep divers and can travel far distances in just one day.



6


Dolphins live in family groups called pods and spend a lot of time playing